BIO

Ron Hoffman co-founded the Gordon T. Heald ALS fund along with Elizabeth Heald following the death of her husband Gordon in Oct. 1998. In time Ron's work led to the creation of the non-profit organization Compassionate Care ALS. He has served as founder and director working with over 1000 individuals, families and communities living with Lou Gehrig's Disease. He facilitates and guides intimate discussions for those engaged in the complexities of living with this catastrophic illness. Ron's work helps examine the myriad of choices and possibilities that people confront including the process of death and dying and the questions that arise as together they create space for dialogue around their decisions.

Originally born in Richmond, Virginia, he currently lives in West Falmouth, Massachusetts, with Moses, his Bernese mountain dog.

SACRED BULLET

It has been said that our greatest gifts come from our deepest wounds. Ron Hoffman has lived his life in testament to these words, having survived a nearly fatal bullet wound as a boy of ten. Join him as he describes the chaos that ensued from the suffering of his childhood, which eventually led him to his current position as a national leader in the holistic care of people living with Lou Gehrig's disease, ALS. Share in this story of a man who lives daily in the trenches of life and death, and who brings to it the compassion and insight of a spiritual leader, one who has done his personal soul mending and who encourages and supports others in doing the same.
